HOMeward BOUND—TRIBUTE TO THE CARNES

How do you express a huge thank you to dear folks who mean the world to you? Put their picture in your newsletter and share about how they have blessed you!

Larry and Peggy Carnes and their precious children (Maggie, Samuel Maricatherine) have faithfully served the Lord as Missionaries in Romania for over 14 years with International Mission Board. However, the Lord has called them to move back to the US for a new season of ministry. They would greatly appreciate your prayers as they make this transition in just a few days—April 3rd.

The Lord allowed me to "meet" them via email in the Fall of 2006 and eventually travel to stay with them in the summer of 2007. Peggy was a fabulous coordinator for Beautiful Gate Translation's first National Women's Leadership conference in Bucharest. I absolutely could not have done it without her! Larry gave a ton of his time and energy, as well. Peggy and I traveled together across Romania and back twice in the course of the next couple of years as we worked on the Bible study translation projects and also the two national conferences.

Their loving support, prayer, encouragement, room to stay, wonderful food to eat, laughter, Larry's wonderful homemade caramel popcorn, etc, are treasures I will always hold dear. Thank you, Sweet Friends, for your gracious hospitality and help! "Onward Christian Soldiers!"

Much love and appreciation, Paulette
