

"And all the people saw him walking and praising God; and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him." Acts 3:9-10 NASB

Because He Lives...

April 2012

What a glorious time of year! To celebrate our Lord's Resurrection from death – because of His story we also have a story! We have been saved from darkness and given eternal life through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. I just have to quote the words to the famous hymn,

*Because He lives, I can face tomorrow.
Because He lives, all fear is gone.
Because I know He holds the future,
And life is worth the living just because He lives.*

I pray you are experiencing His resurrection power and love with full assurance that you can face tomorrow. On top of that marvelous news, I have another bit of news to share.

Here is a wonderful excerpt from a recent email I received from a dear friend in Romania. She helped coordinate our October 2011 Women's Leadership Conference in Sighisoara. Her comments gave me such encouragement and hope for what lies ahead for the translated Bible studies brought to our sisters in Christ abroad.

I was passing by the Nazarene Church and stopped to speak with Relu. They are really enjoying Jesus, the One and Only. He is so excited about the study and would love to see even more people doing Beth Moore studies. I think they will have even more men involved. I was very encouraged by the conversation and to see how much he appreciated the materials. The pastor in our church that I gave the study to really is excited about the materials as well. His wife and he looked through some of the DVDs and the book together.

I have been thinking and praying about what God is wanting to do in Romania and what He would spur the church on to here in this country if they were willing to listen... The studies you are bringing are so valuable for reaching people in every denomination. I really am praying for the body of Christ to rise up out of every denomination and for further studies of the Word all over this country. I see how we're able to do these studies with a variety of ladies and I'm so pleased.

(Relu was our only male attendee at the October conference – such a precious and humble young man! God is mightily using him in Sighisoara!)
