Translation projects moving forward as the Lord opens new doors

I am finding again and again that the Lord's timing is perfect in all things. Shortly after returning from a wonderfully productive trip to Romania this past June, I received two very important communications. One email was from Peggy Carnes, who is the IMB missionary helping to coordinate our Bucharest Women's Conference. She is also assisting with the Romanian translation projects. She needed to fly to the US for emergency health care and is currently recovering from surgery. We praise the Lord for His hand of protection on her.

The second communication came from the printing / publishing firm in Arad, which the Lord has allowed me to now partner with for all of the Romanian projects. Mircea of MultiMedia International issued an honest yet disturbing opinion regarding the current Romanian translation of Beth Moore's "Jesus the One and Only". Bottom line, it needed additional revisions to make it a more usable tool in the Romanian culture. Unfortunately, Peggy and I were anticipating the introduction of this translated study at the September conference. Our delightful new translator, Adriana, is in the process of making these revisions as a certified translator in Bucharest. She is also working on the translation of Beth Moore's "Believing God" Bible study for us.

Revised - "Jesus the One and Only"

Because of the above unexpected events, we had no choice but to re-scheduled the Bucharest conference to February 2008. We are confident the Lord is sovereign and will make known His purpose for these seeming "delays." As a result, please keep up with us via our website for further details on the conference and projects. Also, please continue praying for the Lord's direction and provision for the funding.

In His grace, Paulette Carson
