Looking forward to the Fall Women's Leadership Conference!

For those of you who were not able to keep up with my travel saga this month to Bucharest and Timișoara, Romania, you missed the challenges of my flying standby in the midst of everyone's very busy summer vacation time in Europe. Lesson learned—never travel on a buddy pass in the summer!!! My original intent was to conserve funds on this planning/organizing trip, but as it turned out, I had to stay another week in order to get a flight out from Bucharest. I finally hopped on a plane to Prague and then took a flight to DFW via Atlanta. I was VERY glad to see the good ole USA! In the midst of the challenges, though, God again proved Himself to be mighty. I experienced some amazing divine appointments after I entered that "delayed" time frame. God knew all along of His plans for me.

Bottom line, the conference planning went well, I met some awesome ladies and guys, and was blessed to minister to a very needy Christian woman and her family. I hope you will continue to pray for the logistics of the Women's Leadership conference coming up in Timișoara, Romania on October 3—4th. There are still so many loose ends needing to be woven into the final tapestry. Time is short and the need is great right now for me to experience His peace, His provision and His promises.

In next month's newsletter, I will be highlighting the guest speaker for the Friday evening Pre-conference meeting and Saturday afternoon session—Natalie Nichols of Shades of Grace Ministries. Go to www.shadesofgrace.org for a preview.

Additional news: The newly translated Portuguese tracts of "A Perspective on Christian Suffering" are now available for distribution. One hundred copies of both of our Portuguese resources (see list in left hand column) just arrived in Mozambique, Africa with four missionaries. God is good!! One last comment: I will have my trip pics posted on the website soon!

In His grace, Paulette
