PROPHECY FULFILLED !

You may recall my July newsletter wherein I said the Lord was using our hot East Texas weather to prepare me for the very hot temperatures in Romania. That was the UNDERSTATEMENT of the year!! The temperatures ran over 100 degrees most days, with little relief at night. The inability to open windows or doors to bring in a breeze really added to the sleeping challenges. I thought I could brave the mosquitoes and flies one night, but after waking up the next morning with quarter sized whelps on my arms, I decided to go back to sauna sleeping instead. Thank you, Lord, for my fan!!!

Okay, enough of my complaining. I am very thankful for the Lord's prompting and provision for this July trip. Turns out, I had to make some important decisions for the "Believing God" Bible study production. Because I had been unaware of some of the issues, I could not have successfully made the changes without being there in person. Thank you so much for your prayers and support which made this trip possible! The delays we are still experiencing are difficult for me to absorb, but I continue to remember that God is sovereign. I must do my best by His grace. He will complete the work. Please continue to pray.

Even though I encountered yet another project delay this week I chose to thank the Lord for the continual affirmation that this Bible study will be used to mightily bless the women of Romania. It is an amazing Bible study, and Satan doesn't want it published.

What is that sports adage? "No pain, no gain!" Well, I think we will have tons of gain when it is all said and done. I am delighted to share with you that the word has gotten out about the Bible study and requests are coming in from all corners of Romania for this new study. I budgeted for only 1000 workbooks due to funding constraints. Even though printing more copies would be a higher total price, the individual book price would be lower. I am asking the Lord for additional funds to print a higher number of copies. Would you prayerfully consider helping to make this possible? Once again, thank you for your loving prayers, encouraging notes and financial support. In His grace, Paulette
