Dedication to My Mom

Since the January 2009 newsletter, my precious Mother went home to be with Jesus on February 2 after a difficult stay in the hospital. Because she loved the Lord and knew Him as her Savior, I am at peace with her transition into Glory. She encouraged me so much over these past years as I founded BGT and persevered in the translation ministry. Her "can do" attitude in life inspired me to pursue all things with excellence. I think she would be blessed by my desire to dedicate this newly translated Bible study to her loving memory —

("A-L crede pe Dumnezeu" - "BELIEVING GOD" by Beth Moore)

I am grateful the Lord "delayed" the project, so we could add these words:

This translation is dedicated to the loving memory of Ethel "Pat" Wilson.
She believed God.

Will you pray with me regarding the logistics of the printing, the DVD translation / subtitling / production, and subsequent Leadership Training Conference? Since Romania joined the EU, the cost of materials and labor has skyrocketed. So many dear saints around the world are suffering; however, I know the Lord is not limited by our economic difficulties. He will make a way for His Name to be exalted through the study of His Word abroad. If you would like to share in this blessing, your tax deductible contribution can be mailed to the address located in the left hand column.

I deeply appreciate your love and continued support.

In His grace, Paulette
