February 2011

Happy Valentine's Day!

I hope you had a fabulous day remembering and celebrating the love of your life! With deep gratitude to the Greatest Love of my life, I remember back to the day I wept before my Lord Jesus and surrendered my heart to Him. I admit it has been many years since that day, but the memory remains clearly imbedded in my heart and mind. Thank you, Precious Lord, for giving me your Love and Life.

Well, sweet friends and family, a lot has happened since I wrote to you last regarding our scheduled trip to Moldova in March.

In January, we placed a fleece before the Lord to seek His direction based on His provision. It was clearly answered that we should postpone our conference until October 2011. Yes, I was sad. Yet, I am very thankful we heard His voice and walked in obedience to His directive. Without going into much detail, we have since discovered that many aspects of the trip and conference will be much better suited for October. Praise the Lord for His infinite wisdom!

Thank you to those who prayed and supported with a financial gift. Much is still needed, so we would greatly appreciate everyone's continued prayers and support.

We are still moving toward the printing and production of the revised Bible study by Beth Moore, "Jesus the One and Only" (Isus Singurul si Unicul) as the Lord opens the doors.

We really look forward to ministering in Chisinau, Moldova this year. The Lord is doing a mighty work there in that small country of about 3 million people, and I can hardly wait to get there! (Patience has not been one of my greatest virtues for sure :-). Many details need to be addressed, and the time will fly by faster than I can imagine.

Much love to you,

Paulette
