

“And all the people saw him walking and praising God; and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.” Acts 3:9-10 NASB

Jesus is God's Valentine to Us

February 2012

These words are posted on the marquee of a small church just down the road from my house. I was captivated - truly, there is no greater love than what Jesus did for us. The words from an old hymn echo in my mind, "Oh how marvelous, oh how wonderful is my Savior's love for me." I pray He is your Valentine, and that you are delighting in His love today.

When I received the email message below from Romania this week, I was deeply moved by our Lord's great love for these dear Sisters in Christ. These are the unedited words of Luminita, their group leader.

In His grace,

Paulette

May that God bless you!

In december 2011 we have finished the Beth Moore study "Believeng God". We started in October and for 10 weeks we were guided from theory to practical and personal application of the promises that God has for us. We were challenged by this "We believe in God, but do we believe Him?". There was 20 participants and each one has a genuine story about the way the God touch them.

One lady, Paula, had discovered in this time of study, meditating and prayer a small reflection o God's love through her father. Very few nice memories she can recall from her childhood and that's way she consider it priceless. She had some questions that kept troubled her and God answer to them through this study. Many times she said that this lesson was written for her.

Another lady-Constanta- testify how good was for her to meditate at God's protection over her since her birth even though she didn't knew Him. She could watch scenes of her life like she was on the stage but also like a spectator and this was the moment in which God healed her. Even though her faith was under siege she was able to understand, finally, that God forgive her past and forget it.

Georgiana was expecting and praying for a new annointing, a fresh faith. She testified also that the study was an answer from the Lord and she was refreshed.

There was other ladies transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit and we had a few testimonies at our radio show for ladies.

We can say a lot more but I'll stick with this thought that it was a great joy to see that the study worth every effort and I believe that this 5 principles learned from Beth will guide us through the rest of our life.

We choose to believe that:

- God is who He say it is
- God can do what He say
- I'm who God says that I am
- I can do all things in Christ
- His Word is alive in me

May that God bless you abudently acording to His grace,
Luminita Baciu, Programs Manager - Radio S.O.S. Ploiesti
