

"And all the people saw him walking and praising God; and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him." Acts 3:9-10 NASB

LOVE IS IN THE AIR!

February 2013

This month I want to share about two things I really love!

I love the testimonies we receive from our Romanian Sisters sharing how much they appreciate the translated Bible studies and how their lives have been positively impacted. Regarding Living Beyond Yourself, Exploring the Fruit of the Spirit --

This study challenged me once more to see the calling that God has made me, and I want to be able to act in a manner worthy of this calling. I want to be able to act when God acts and stop whenever He stops. To not be outside the timing of the Holy Spirit and move the way He moves.

I cannot divide my life into different compartments, saying that this is when I act on my own, and this is when I'll have God do the work, through His Holy Spirit. I am to see that if the Holy Spirit lives in me, we are one through all life's situations. He is the One who can make it possible for the Fruit of the Spirit to abide in me. This Fruit appears when I let Him guide and influence my life. Otherwise, I am to fall down to the ground whenever. Once I start walking with Him, in the rhythm that He walks in, practicing the Fruit of the Spirit, nothing else would matter, for the direction in which He leads me is the best one and the ending is going to be glorious. I will then be able to be amongst those to whom our Lord says: "Well done, good and faithful servant!"

There was a song that says: "As a follower of Christ, He calls me to fight. The road is set before the time, and I need to move forward without fear. His grace is what I find enough. Jesus forever lives."

Thank you for the study and for your passion in helping people grow in the knowledge of the Almighty! May God bless you and keep you! Angela Zainea – Bucharest, Romania, Dec 2012

Also, with great delight, I want to introduce our newest BGT Board member and new Treasurer, Kenla Miller. Please join me in welcoming Kenla to the team.

With love, Paulette
