

Beautiful Gate Translations

"And all the people saw him walking and praising God; and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him." Acts 3: 9-10 NASB

MY YEAR OF JUBILEE!!

It is hard to believe it, but I actually have made it to my year of Jubilee—the Big 50th birthday! I am claiming great things for this year, and almost wish I could step back in time to Old Testament days or when Jesus walked on the earth. When the Jews hit their year of Jubilee, they were forgiven all their debt and their lands restored. What a wonderful thing to experience! However, I am a realist and know that probably won't happen. So, I am going to rejoice in Jesus as the best Gift of all!!

I am deeply thankful this New Year as I reflect on God's goodness to me. I can honestly say I have seen the Lord do wondrous things in my own life, my family and with Beautiful Gate Translations. All good things are from His hand. Those things we all experience may be exciting adventures, sorrows, great health, calamities, great friendships, discouragements, etc. As Believers, we can say with full assurance that He has our highest good in mind as He allows these challenges in our lives.

Thank you so much for all your loving care and concern for me and Beautiful Gate Translations. As I write this newsletter, the Romanian translation of Jesus the One and Only is going to print. As I have shared several times in my newsletters, my friend, Peggy Carnes, and I will be hosting the Women's Conference in Bucharest, Romania less than two weeks from now — February 16th. Word of mouth has been a key advertisement, and now we do not have enough room to accommodate all who want to attend. What a blessing for such a response!! I leave on Feb. 8 and return on the 20th. I would greatly appreciate your prayers.

In my efforts to complete many details these past weeks, I have been tempted to be anxious over several issues. However, the Lord has repeatedly called me to "Be still, and know that I am God." He will glorify Himself—one way or another. The funding is still not where it needs to be — there is a substantial shortfall to pay for the printing costs. God can take the loaves and fishes that we have and multiply it for His glory and our provision. Will you consider sharing in the blessing with your loaves or fishes to touch the lives of these precious Romanian women and missionaries? I can't think of anything more worthy than to share with them "Jesus the One and Only".

With much love and gratitude, Paulette Carson
