Preparations Underway for October Conference !!

Can you believe that it is already July!!! I am amazed at how fast this year has flown by! I hope you have had a great time so far and are looking forward with anticipation of His goodness toward you.

As I prepare for my next trip to Timisoara, Romania this next week, I am reminded again of God's amazing love and faithfulness to all of us. He is intimately acquainted with all our ways and knows we are but dust. EVERY-THING we do is a function of His mercy over us and His grace poured out to us. His goodness leads us to repentance when we stray from His wisdom and direction.

I had the most delightful surprise yesterday when I came across this picture (above) on the International Mission Board (IMB) website of a missionary couple named Chris and Sue Hortin serving in Bacau, Romania. It just blessed my socks off to see these precious Sisters from First Baptist Church in Bacau gathering for their Bible study using the resources we introduced back in February 2008!!

Well, that's what I will be doing for our Sisters in Christ in the Western portion of Romania on October 3—4th. We will be introducing Beth Moore's Bible study, "Jesus the One and Only" ("Isus Singurul și Unicul") and training women in ministry leadership to facilitate the study. They will receive a full leaders kit and enough workbooks to take back for the ladies in their own ministry groups.

Please pray for the logistics of this July planning trip as well as for safe travel, adequate funding and most importantly, the building of relationships to honor the Lord.

In His grace, Paulette
