TOP O' THE MORNING TO YOU!

The month of March is famous for its St. Patrick Day celebration on the 17th. I think it is even more famous because it is MY birthday! Yep, the big 51! I am more than half a century old, but still alive and kickin'. I am so thankful for God's strength and endurance to continue this translation ministry. It is such a blessing for me to be a part of God's plan for ministry to our Christian brothers and sisters abroad.

Thank you to everyone who has continued to bless BGT with your prayers and support. I want you to know that it truly is your faithfulness and not "the luck of the Irish" which has kept me going in the face of difficult challenges.

We are continuing the work on the Romanian Bible study "Believing God" (A-L crede pe Dumnezeu) by Beth Moore and need your prayers for protection and provision for the project's completion. The enemy is diligently working to defeat it at every turn. I am actually grateful for the confirmation that we are on the right path!

Two other smaller projects have been brought from the "back burner" to the "front burner." Beth Moore's "Discovering God's Purpose For Your Life" and Wallace Rutland's "A Perspective on Christian Suffering" are being translated into Ukrainian. The lovely translator who is working on them is such a gifted young lady. Please pray for her to complete them without any difficulty or interference from Satan. I deeply appreciate your love and continued support.

In His grace, Paulette
