

"And all the people saw him walking and praising God; and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him." Acts 3:9-10 NASB

I Won! (I Won! (And I never win anything!))

March 2011

With great surprise and delight, I picked up the basket I had won in the expo drawing at the Women in Christian Media booth. It contained all kinds of marvelous BEE Alive products and books from several authors. I immediately pounced on the small box of chocolate – no small surprise there! I guess the Lord just wanted to give me an early present, since it's my birthday this month!

At the last minute, the Lord graciously allowed me the opportunity to attend the National Religious Broadcasters convention in Nashville, Tennessee. With the postponing of our Moldova conference until October 2011 and the ability to attend at a drastically reduced cost, I was able to make the NRB trip. The Lord has a plan for each of our days, and I so appreciate His faithful instruction and provision.

Truly, the Lord delighted my heart in many ways while there, in addition to all the great educational sessions and motivating services. He provided so many amazing divine appointments, that I cannot list them all here. One man I encountered in the midst of the huge expo (thousands of people attended this convention from all over the world), was someone I really, really wanted to meet. He wasn't even scheduled to attend, but at the last minute, he said he jumped up and decided to go. Woooo-hoooo! This man is one of the most gracious and loving guys with a huge heart for Moldovan children and young people. His name is Philip Cameron. I "just so happened" to walk down one aisle, and there he was – standing with a group of folks! I walked up to him and proclaimed, "You're Philip Cameron!" He chuckled and agreed. The young ladies living in the Stella's Houses in Moldova call him Daddy because of his huge Father's love for them. His heart of compassion and passion drove him to open the Stella's and Simon's Houses to provide a safe haven from human trafficking. They have also opened a Christian orphanage named Providence.

You may recall my mentioning this ministry in previous newsletters. The young ladies in the Stella's Houses will be recipients of our translated Bible study materials when their leaders attend the October Leadership conference in Chisinau, Moldova. There are currently 37 girls living in two homes with two more homes under construction. I don't usually write so much about other ministries, because there are so many I love and support. However, I just had to make an exception today. Please visit www.stellasvoice.org to read their amazing story. I promise you will be blessed!

With love and appreciation,

Paulette

Thank you so very much for your faithful prayers, encouraging notes and testimonies and your generous financial gifts. We look forward to getting the Bible study materials ready to go for the October conference in Moldova.
