Jesus, our One and Only

Since we celebrated our Lord's Resurrection last month, I wanted to share some very encouraging reports about the Romanian translation of Beth Moore's "Jesus the One and Only" Bible study. So many ladies in Romania are experiencing His life-changing touch through this study. Here are just a few comments from some of these Campus Crusade ladies in Romania:

"Jesus, the One and Only has had a huge impact in my life this year. I used it during my personal time with the Lord each day. It challenged me to think deeper about my identity in Christ, all the blessings I have being in relationship with him, and he is the only one who can fully satisfy me. I learned things about passages of scripture that were totally new to me, it caused me to think differently on the passages because of the questions that Beth Moore asked and the way she challenges us to stimulate our imagination, to put myself in the person's shoes, how it would be to live in that time, etc..." Adina

"The study helps me to dig deeper in the word of God and find treasures that I can share then with the college students. Every lesson provides with a rich portion of the Word of God. It invigorates me in my relationship with God and helps me in the ministry with college students where I serve." Cristina Marinescu

"I am encouraged because through this study I know Jesus in a more profound way. My faith in Jesus has grown as I've seen him walk among people like me, and He cared about each one. His relationship with the Father is very special, and I am challenged to have a reverent, worshipful attitude before Him. I feel comforted and protected by God after going through this study." Natalia

"This study gave me a different perspective on Jesus and His Father. It helped me think deeper about situations mentioned in the Bible (for example: to be a leper in Biblical times or to be a virgin and become pregnant). I really like the explanations from the original Greek and Hebrew. This study is great." Martha Arjan

Testimony and Words of Wisdom from a Campus Crusade leader:

My understanding of different aspects of Jesus' character has been enlarged. The study helps me put pieces together that I hadn't understood before. I have benefited from the explanation that Jesus first called his disciples to follow him and afterwards gave them tasks of serving him (when he sent them out to different villages). We are all called to be disciples of Christ. After that he graciously gives us tasks to serve him but the calling never changes - to be his disciple.
