I am abundantly thankful this Season! I bet you are, too!

The Lord gave such an abundant measure of His blessings during this last trip to Timișoara, Romania! Too many things to share in this one newsletter. I will briefly summarize here, but will include some pictures and captions in the BGT website photo gallery.

The National Women's Leadership Conference was a fabulous experience for me, and apparently for each of the women in attendance. The workshop to teach facilitation of the translated Bible study, "Jesus the One and Only" and small group discussion went very well and the ladies really enjoyed the time of fellowship together during the luncheon. Each of the ladies was so thrilled to receive a full leader's kit and sufficient workbooks to take back for the ladies at their own churches or ministries. We had ladies of various ages and socio/economic backgrounds and several denominations. Here are some of their comments:

"I have been searching all summer for a suitable study with which we could start this new year of study. Today, we were amazed by how God answered our prayers. This Bible study is exactly what we needed. Since the introduction of this study was so wonderful, we are looking forward to seeing it all."

"Everything was more than great. But all the moments in which the Bible study book was presented overwhelmed me. I really felt blessed."

"I enjoyed the presentation of the course, the advice to make Him the One and Only in your life and the testimony of a life based on the Word of God. It was great!"

"God gave me a new perspective in a moment in which I found myself at a crossroads."

It was so gratifying to plan for such an event and then see it come to fruition before my eyes! The Lord also greatly blessed the events with Natalie and Sandra Nichols of Shades of Grace Ministries. Almost 600 ladies attended the Friday evening session and around 900 university aged young people at the Tuesday evening Youth meeting. Both were broadcast live on the internet. PTL!

In His grace, Paulette
