HAPPY THANKSGIVING !

What a great time of year! The Thanksgiving season is not only beautiful, but a time to remember how important it is to be thankful. I am so grateful for the Lord's provision and blessing for me, my family, my church and Beautiful Gate Translations.

I pray you are experiencing the sweet presence of the Lord as you prepare for the holiday season. He truly is worthy of our praise and adoration with all thankfulness.

As we draw near the end of 2010, I look back on the leadership conferences we have held for the women of Romania this year. We were able to introduce the translated Bible study, "Believing God" by Beth Moore with such amazing results. In fact, all four of our conferences since February 2008 have resulted in thousands of women growing in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus through these Bible studies. All because you cared enough to pray and contribute financial support. You have truly inspired me as I have walked this faith-building journey.

It is more than exciting to be able to report that we have distributed ALL our Bible study materials for both of the translated Bible studies, "Jesus the One and Only" and "Believing God". That is a fabulous blessing, and yet it creates a new need.

By faith, I am now planning a conference for March 2011 for women in Moldova, a neighboring country with Romanian and Russian speaking people groups. We do not have the Bible study resources necessary to hold the conference, but trust the Lord for the funds to reprint the two studies in time.

Would you prayerfully consider supporting this project? We would like to print at least 500 more workbooks for each study as well as produce 50 DVD sets for each study. The need is great, but our Lord's Hand of provision is always able to meet our need. Your gift this year to help make this project possible will be greatly appreciated.

With much love, Paulette
