Whew!! Goodbye Ike—Hello Romania !

We are so thankful for God's protection as we experienced ferocious winds and damaging rains. I pray each of you in Texas have been able to come through without major difficulties. Even though water poured into my BGT office from roof damage, the computer and ministry resources were not damaged. PTL!! Thank you, Lord, for a wonderful cool front as well. Now that we are getting back into a semblance of "normalcy", I am kicking into high gear with preparations for my next trip to Timișoara, Romania. Before Ike loomed in the Gulf, I had rescheduled the conference for later in the month, and am definitely seeing God's hand in directing that change.

So, just a few weeks from now I will be heading over to hold our second Women's Leadership Conference. As I have shared in previous newsletters, a team of four ladies from Shades of Grace Ministries will be joining me. I am really getting excited about all ministry aspects of the trip:

October 24th - Natalie and Sandra Nichols (Natalie's mother) to share their testimonies in a Friday night session open to women in the General Public.

October 25th - Training conference for Women in Ministry leadership (Nationals and Missionaries) in facilitation of the Romanian version of Beth Moore's "Jesus the One and Only". Natalie is the Keynote speaker in the last session with Sandra joining her for a Q&A session.

October 28th - Natalie and her niece, Jessica, will share with music and testimonies at the weekly Youth meeting at Bethel Baptist Church. Usually 800 - 1000 young folks gather for praise and worship, Bible study and small group sessions. This gathering will be a special treat for them. Jessica is a 16 year old Championship rodeo barrel racer and talented guitarist.

The balance of our trip will include visiting poor village families, orphanages, helping with an after-school program, TV interview for Natalie, and other things. It will be a full trip! We would really appreciate your prayers. In His grace, Paulette

Rick Scarborough of Vision America -

"I was overwhelmed with the depth of Natalie's pure love for Jesus and her knowledge of His ways. This is a modern-day Job. God has given her a message that our people need to hear."

Joni Eareckson Tada -

"I'm so thankful that God is raising up women like Natalie for a new generation, providing biblically balanced teaching, encouragement, and comfort for people who are enduring life's trials."
