TESTIMONY TIME !

I thought you would enjoy hearing from some of the ladies who attended the recent Women's Leadership Conference in Timisoara, Romania on August 30th. We had a wonderful time, and I treasure the memories of our evening together. It was a blessing for all of us in so many ways. The comments below were from the conference evaluation forms they completed to help us make improvements in future conferences.

In response to the question: "Were you satisfied as a whole with this conference and feel you gained sufficient instruction as a Leader?"

They responded:

"Yes, I was filled with a remarkable spiritual charge."

"It was a conference that challenged me to a greater dedication in ministry."

In response to the question: "What is one aspect which you enjoyed the most about this conference?"

They responded:

"I learned that my happiness must lie in drawing near to God and holiness."

"The challenge to make theology and reality become united in my life."

"The organization, hospitality, fellowship together, the video presentation, group study time, and I very much liked Paulette."

[ Note: I especially like the last comment here.... 😊 ]

Thanks so much to all of you who supported this conference with prayer and gifts.

You are the best!

Much love, Paulette
