APPROACHING THE FINISH LINE

Can you tolerate another news update about the soon-to-be-completed Bible study, "Believing God" (A-L crede pe Dumnezeu) by Beth Moore? If you stay with me, I promise to give you great news about two other projects and an awesome testimony.

We are making progress on the Bible study and are shooting for a mid-October completion date. Please pray for the final touches to be made on the print ready format of the workbook and the video subtitling. It would really "float my boat" if God provided enough funding to print double the amount of workbooks. Even though I have often felt I am agonizing over this project's logistics, I'm sure you know that Beautiful Gate Translations is not the only ministry going through difficulties and challenges. I spoke just a few days ago to a wonderful ministry coordinator in Tyler, Texas who said their team has experienced unprecedented Satanic opposition to their conference preparations in Romania. Everywhere we turn as Believers, it is growing ever darker.

Which reminds me — I have another prayer request. This month, a batch of our translated Bible study materials ("Jesus the One and Only") will be transported into a politically hostile and persecuted region by some very devoted Christians. Please pray for their safety as they pass through the border, and that they will not experience any delays or difficulties.

Finally, here is the testimony about the same Bible study. It blew me away!

I have started studying 'Jesus the One and Only' together with my kids Daniela (13) and Andrei (9) and they were happy to write their own answers in their first Bible study books. Each morning we would find so many new sides of the events which we read so many times before, all in a new light. Right after the first lesson we shared with Daniel (my husband) what we have learned and he also started studying it. We both soon decided that we should start studying it with our bible study group. Two persons of our group didn't know Jesus, we gave them 2 copies of the study and we were surprised to see them encouraged to read the Bible and find answers to the questions of each lesson. Sure this study was a blessing for my family and our Bible study group.— Rodica B., Braila, Romania
